Overview

This pathway meets requirements for the Associate of Arts - Direct Transfer Agreement (AA-DTA) with a concentration in Psychology. Completion of this degree opens doors to entry level employment in many sectors including non-profit, social work, healthcare, education, business, and government. It also allows you to transfer at the junior level into a Psychology program at a four-year college or university.

Students in this pathway develop an awareness of human behavior and thinking that will serve them in both personal and professional capacities. (Read program QR code to see more)

Get Started

Step 1: Apply and register at North Seattle College anytime (the application is always free). Once you become a student, register for classes using the online class schedule and go to the academic calendar for registration dates and tuition deadlines.

Step 2: See an advisor to create a personalized educational plan by the end of your second quarter. Your plan will include prerequisites, graduation requirements, and transfer preparation if you plan to transfer to another college or university to earn a bachelor's degree.

A sample schedule is below. The schedule will help you explore courses. The guide assumes a fall quarter start, but you can begin in any quarter.
